CURRICULUM VITAE

João Mateus Borges da Silveira, I was born on June 3, 1978, in Janaúba (MG). When I was still a boy, I emigrated to Maranhão, because my parents, João Machado da Silveira and Terezinha Borges da Silveira, found job opportunities in this state. I spent my childhood in the neighborhood of Maranhão Novo, later Recanto dos Vinhais. During my adolescence, I lived in several neighborhoods on the Island of São Luís, such as: Rancho Dom Luís, Maracanã, Vila Bessa, Cohafuma, Renascença, Angelim, Calhau, Estrada da Maioba, Turu, Araçagy, Calhau and currently lives on the Peninsula of Ponta D'Areia. Every year, I would go on vacation to see my large family in Minas Gerais and DF - Brasília (my mother had eleven brothers and sisters and my father had four). I finished high school (formerly 2nd grade) at Colégio Santa Teresa. I studied Law in the morning at UFMA - Universidade Federal do Maranhão (from 1997 to 2002). I took advantage of the long "strike" period at UFMA in 1997/1998 to study English and do an "au pair" program in the United States (New York and Connecticut) with my cousin. I graduated with distinction and excellence from Westchester Community College, New York. After graduating in Law from UFMA (Universidade Federal do Maranhão), I specialized in Civil Law, Civil Procedure and Business at Uniceuma.

JOÃO MATEUS BORGES DA SILVEIRA
LAWYER since 2003.

Before Law School, I have done primary school (from 1986 to 1989), elementary school (from 1990 to 1993) and high school (from 1994 to 1996) at the same school, with more than 120 years old, called Colégio Santa Teresa in São Luís, state of Maranhão.

I married Patrícia Maciel de Melo in 2001, with whom I have one son, Arthur Melo da Silveira, born on May 10, 2008, who is Senior Year of high school in Ottawa, Canada.

I was a successful businessman between 1999 and 2006, opening the first English course franchise in Maranhão, when I decided to pursue a career as a legal consultant and legal advisor, which I began in parallel in 2003.

In 2011, I was admitted to the University of California (UCDavis) for the L.L.M. in International Commercial Law. During this master's degree, I participated in all events, highlighting the international seminars at the University of Cologne, Germany, co-organized by UCDAVIS and Unisität zu Köln. I graduated with a "Master of Law in International Commercial Law" in the class of 2015. And, most importantly, since 2003, I have been a founding member of the law firm Borges Advogados Associados, with the competence and experience to practice in the most complex areas of law. In addition to the areas of activity listed on the website on the left, it is worth mentioning my office's Instagram account (link: https://instagram.com/borges_a_a?igshid=OGQ5ZDc2ODk2ZA==) and clarifying that my learning and practice at UCDAVIS and Cologne University in areas of interest in international business (business administration), intellectual property, securities regulation, international funding, arbitration, Marine Law, American Legal Research, Alternative Dispute Resolutions, etc.
